

ADVANCED CONVERSATION AND GRAMMAR

The main objective of this course is to give students the opportunity to improve the precision, accuracy and fluency of their already developed French language skills. The instructor uses magazine and newspaper articles, songs, poems, recipes and other realities to stimulate conversation among class members. While oral comprehension and production are the key elements, the instructor takes advantage of all teachable moments to highlight grammatical elements through the materials used, and to respond to enquiries from class members.